Extract from page 5 of the Board Inspection notes of the Revd member appointed in Mysore and Bangalore Dts in January 1923.

Page 5. Village Courts. The term of three years for which the Village Court was established was said to have expired by last November. I was told that a reference had been made for its continuance and that no orders have been received yet. The Deputy Com was requested to enquire where the reference was pending and take necessary steps for obtaining the sanction of Government. The Revenue Commissioner will be requested to report such cases to Government in future six months before the expiry of the term.

In Govt. notn no 4664/Eg-59-8-2 dy 3-9-1918, the village Court at Bhamaraganagere was established with effect from 1st Nov. 1918. The Village Munsiff, appointed there had a term of 3 years unless continued for a further term. The term of the Court has not expired because no term was fixed when the Court was first established. The Deputy Court has power under the Rules to revise the list once in three years. No sanction of Govt for revising the list is required. Hence there seems to be no need to issue instructions to the Revenue Court to report such cases to Govt six months before the expiry of the term.

Ordinance 2 of 1923 amends the Village Courts Ordinance No. 13 of 1889 and the Village Communities Ordinance No. 26 of 1871 and has different purposes.

The Revenue Court has recommended that certain other villages may be grouped with the village Court at Kahawaraja Kotte with a draft 21.7.23.

It does not appear that the list is revised as required under the rules.
